DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 18 is objected to because of the following informalities: it is suggested to change “in size as a circumference of the shaped region” to “in size to a circumference of the shaped region”. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 19 and 20 require the shaped region have a surface which is either oval or ellipsoid or triangle or rectangle. It is unclear how a surface (i.e. the wall of the region) has such a configuration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

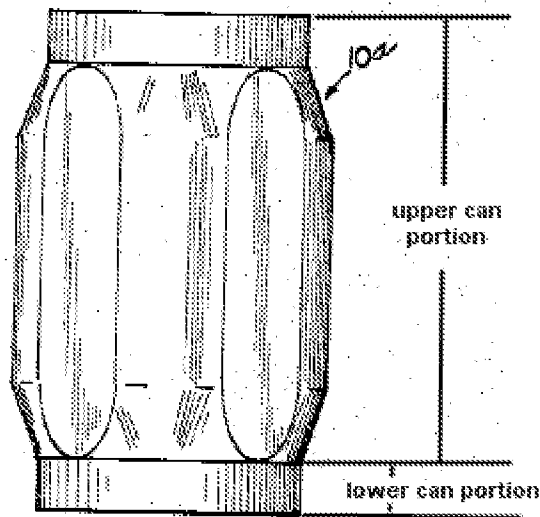

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 16-24 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Frankenberg (US Patent # 3,759,203). Frankenberg discloses a spray can comprising a can body made of metal [see col. 2 lines 21-22] having a lower can portion and an upper can portion [see FIG below], wherein the lower can portion has a bottom and a generally cylindrical configuration so as to have a substantially circular cross section , wherein the upper can portion is provided with a shoulder area and has a collared can opening for insertion of a spraying system, the upper can portion having a shaped region constructed to also extend across the shoulder area and defined by a non-circular cross section [see FIGS 3, 8, 13].

In reference to claim 17, the can body has a substantially constant wall thickness about a circumference thereof and along a height thereof, as seen in figure 6.

In reference to claim 18, the circumference of the lower can portion is equal in size to a circumference of the shaped region.

In reference to claim 19, the shaped region has a surface which is oval, as seen in figure 3.

In reference to claim 20, the shaped region has a surface which is rectangle, as seen in figure 5.

In reference to claim 21, the can opening of the can body is standardized for insertion of the spraying system of standard configuration.

Art Unit: 3725

In reference to claims 22-24, Frankenberg meets the structural limitations of the can body according to claim 16 and therefore is constructed for a filling pressure between 5 and 35 bar, between 10 and 20 bar and between 12 and 18 bar.

In reference to claim 31, the can body as a V-shaped configuration between the bottom end of the upper can portion and the top end of the lower can portion, as seen in figure 13.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

1. Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Frankenberg in view of Chupak (US Patent # 6,907,653). Frankenberg discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for wherein the metallic material is aluminum. However, Chupak teaches that it is well known in the can art to form cans from aluminum for packaging liquids [See col. 1 lines 16-18]. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the can of Frankenberg to be constructed of aluminum since it is well known in the art for packaging of liquids as evidenced by Chupak.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 16-25 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
